

Heather N. Coakley, PsyD.
Clinical Psychologist PSY 21078
coakley@spinalsurgical.com

999 N. Tustin Ave, Ste 19
Santa Ana CA 92705

PRACTICE

Dr. Coakley's practice focus is assessments, diagnoses, treatment planning and interventions for adults, couples & families presenting with chronic pain and dual diagnosis concerns.

Cognitive Behavioral Therapy both in individual and group settings is a critical challenge in a multi-disciplinary pain management program. Dr. Coakley evaluates chronic pain patients and develops a psychological plan that dovetails with the patient's medical treatment.

Her training and experience is in psychological assessments, chronic pain, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, psychotic and/or personality disorders.

In addition, Dr. Coakley participates in a large medical center, crisis addiction intervention and has many admissions in 5150 and voluntary patient holds. Indeed, she is certified to write 5150 hospitalizations.

HOSPITAL AFFILIATIONS

Kaiser Permanente, Orange CA

EDUCATION

Doctor of Psychology: 2005 California School of Professional Psychology / Alliant International University

Master of Arts, Psychology: 2005 California School of Professional Psychology / Alliant International University

Master of Social Work: 2001 California State University, Long Beach CA